

Name: _____

Review Worksheet 6: Adjectives

Directions: circle the adjectives in the following passage.

One morning, Alfred went into his mother's room with a smiling, joyous face.

"Mother," he said, "will you let me see that beautiful book again?"

His mother took the precious volume from its place. Alfred opened it with careful fingers. Then he read the first story aloud without making one mistake. His mother kissed him and gave him the beautiful book. Alfred grew up to become the wisest and noblest king that England ever had.