

Subordinating Conjunctions

Directions: circle the subordinating conjunction in each sentence. Hint: a subordinating conjunction is a word or words that connect a subordinate clause to the rest of a sentence.

1. I am allowed to play on the playground until my mom calls me in for dinner.
2. T.J. likes to go bowling even though he isn't very good at it.
3. I am reading a book while my sister is talking on the phone.
4. Cherise studies her spelling words so that she can be a better writer.
5. I always have an umbrella with me just in case it rains while I am out.
6. I don't have as much free time now that I am taking piano lessons.